FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett

Ladies and Gentlemen, Boys and Girls,

Welcome again to our 19th Carnival. We have a double event this year with the Royal Wedding and we wish Prince Charles and Lady Diana every happiness.

As we have to make our plans a year in advance you may realise it has caused us to alter our Carnival slightly. Everyone will be glued to the T.V. on the Wednesday, so we are having the morning and afternoon events Tuesday, and the Main Carnival Procession, Fireworks and Barbeque on the Esplanade on Wednesday evening.

We all enjoy this time very much, so will you please encourage the small Committee and support them. They all work very hard during the winter months to raise money to cover this event and with your help and generosity hope to carry on, this is no easy task with ever increasing costs.

We thank everyone who helps us in any way including visitors.

Have a good day and enjoy yourselves.

JOIN IN THE FUN AND SPOT YOUR PRIZE
